

Backlit purple agate flooring tile, with its unique natural texture and mysterious purple luster, perfectly presents the art of nature in indoor spaces. As a rare semi-precious stone, purple agate not only has a crystal clear texture, but also emits a warm and soft halo when illuminated by light, creating a dreamlike visual effect that is intoxicating. It is a popular semi-precious stone slab and is loved by designers.

Purple agate flooring tile has a natural texture that is unique, each piece of purple agate flooring tile has an unreplicable texture, as exquisite as a work of art. The translucent purple agate floor has excellent light transmittance. Against the background of lamplight or natural light, the purple agate can transmit light softly, injecting agility and luxury into the space. After professional processing, purple agate flooring is not only beautiful, but also wear-resistant and moisture-proof, meeting the needs of long-term use.

Application scenarios of purple agate flooring

High-end home: Purple agate flooring tile is suitable for spaces such as living rooms, bedrooms or tea rooms, creating a warm and noble atmosphere.

Commercial space: In hotel lobbies, luxury stores or high-end restaurants, purple agate flooring tile can enhance the overall grade and highlight brand taste.

Art decoration: combined with lighting design, it can be used for wall decoration, background wall or floor to create a visual focus and give life to the space.

The backlit purple agate floor is not only a bright color in the space design, but also a fusion of luxury and nature. Whether used in a home or commercial space, it can inject a unique artistic beauty into your environment. Choose translucent purple agate to light up your life and dreams!