

green jade slab is made of natural jade, is a popular semi-precious stone slab. The light transmission of the green jade slab is called a masterpiece, which can show a gradual effect from translucent to micro-transparent. When the light penetrates, the surface of the board is like a veil, and the dark gray tones appear, as if the moonlight penetrates the ancient jade, fainting out the quiet and deep layers of light and shadow.

Application scenario of green jade slab

High-end private residence:

As a background wall, screen partition or countertop, The calm tone and light transmittance of green jade can balance the heaviness and lightness of the space.

Commercial space:

In the hotel lobby and art exhibition hall, a large area of green jade wall is covered with directional lighting, which instantly enhances the space style and highlights the low-key luxury Oriental aesthetics.

Creative furniture and household items:

Custom furniture table or porch decoration, let the light walk between the jade texture, artifacts are art, light up the ritual sense of life.