

The backlit double sink white crystal countertop out for its crystal clear texture and excellent light-transmitting properties. It is the most popular type of semi-precious stone sink. Due to the natural permeability of white crystal, when light passes through, the sink will emit a soft and charming luster, adding an elegant and tranquil atmosphere to the space. The translucent white crystal double sink not only has a beautiful decorative effect, but is also extremely durable and can resist scratches and daily wear and tear.

Application scenarios

Backlit White crystal double sink are suitable for high-end residences, hotels, shopping malls, restaurants, SPA centers and other places. They add unique visual highlights to various spaces and enhance the taste and style of the overall environment.

