

Backlit yellow agate slab, its warm yellow tone is like sunlight shining on the earth, symbolizing hope and energy. Yellow agate not only has a charming color and unique texture, but is also endowed with the symbolic meaning of dispelling negative energy and adding courage. As a gift from nature, yellow agate slab has both aesthetic and practical value. It is a popular translucent semi-precious stone slab and is favored by designers and customers.

Application of backlit yellow agate slab

The backlit yellow agate slab fully demonstrates the beauty of natural yellow agate through exquisite cutting and polishing processes. This kind of slab is often used in high-end interior decoration and commercial space design, and can be used in background walls, floors, bars, tabletops, lighting finishes, etc. It not only improves the quality of the space, but also adds a unique sense of luxury to the overall design.

The charm of translucency

The biggest highlight of backlit yellow agate slab is its excellent light transmittance. When light shines from behind, the texture and color of yellow agate become more vivid, showing a dreamy light and shadow effect. Whether it is used as a background wall in a hotel lobby or as a lighting decoration in a private residence, it can inject warmth and artistic atmosphere into the space, making every detail exude unique charm.
