

Grey agate table top has a unique texture and color, with a soft gray tone overall. The surface of the table top has a delicate texture. It is a popular semi-precious stone table top. Grey agate table top are ideal for modern home decor, especially for a variety of furniture such as end tables, side tables and coffee tables.

Shape and Design

Grey agate table top are usually designed in a round shape, which not only conforms to traditional aesthetics, but also blends well into modern home environments. The round table top visually gives people a soft and friendly feeling, and is suitable for matching with various home styles, whether it is simple modern, Nordic style, or retro classic decorative style.

Application

End table: Grey agate round table top is often used in the design of end tables, which can add elegance and tranquility to the living room space. The natural texture of grey agate makes each table top unique, enhancing the taste and texture of the entire space.

Side table: As auxiliary furniture, side tables play an increasingly important role in the home. Grey agate table top paired with exquisite metal or wooden brackets are both practical and beautiful, making them an excellent choice for embellishment in the corners of the living room or bedroom.

Coffee Table: The round top in grey agate is also perfect for a coffee table. Whether placed in the living room or study, the grey agate coffee table can add a touch of artistic flavor to the space, making the living environment more high-end and tasteful.

SHENGYAO
CHINA • SINCE 2003

